A Father

With hands so gentle
Yet so very strong
A father is there to correct us
To keep us from wrong
With words so stern
Yet so very kind
A father is there to direct us
Our way to find
With arms so mighty
Yet loving and sincere
A father is to hold us
To comfort and calm our fear
With a heart so full
Of everlasting love
A father is there to love us
With guidance from above
Because an earthly father
Is just an extension of
Our Heavenly Father
And His all encompassing love.

M.J.M.

I DECLARE I will live victoriously. I was created in the image of God. I have the DNA of a winner. I am wearing a crown of favor. Royal blood flows through my veins. I am the head, never the tail, above never beneath. I will live with purpose, passion, and praise, knowing that I was destined to live in victory. This is my declaration.

Happy Father's Day
